The Duty of Married Soldiers.

IT does not follow as a matter of course, if a man was a soldier, even if he is a pensioner, that it will be an easy matter for his widow to get a pension. As a matter of fact widows' claims are unnecessarily delayed, and in some cases never allowed, for lack of evidence, which the husband, usually, could have supplied during his lifetime.

This important matter has been discussed, from time to time, in the columns of papers friendly to the interests of soldiers, and has been made the subject of orders by Commanders-in-Chief of the Grand Army, but every appeal heretofore was deficient in one essential particular: no safe and permanent place was suggested for the custody of the information.

R. W. Shoppell, for many years publisher of The National Tribune and now devoting all his time to his large pension practice, supplies this deficiency. Under lock and key, to insure privacy, he will care for such papers and information until such time as they may be needed, even if such time is many years distant.

But he goes further in this commendable work. He will assist in getting in shape the proofs and information required. The first step for every comrade is to answer the few simple questions that are printed below under the heading "Preliminary Report." This report will disclose the case and enable Mr. Shoppell to complete all the proofs required.

There will be no charge for this service except a reasonable amount for postage, preparation of papers and care of the papers until they are needed. The lowest estimate of actual cost is $1. There will be no other expense whatever.

On the other side of this blank will be found the views of comrades, also references to widows whose claims for pensions have been allowed in less time than one month. These quick allowances were all the result of the soldier husband having made a Preliminary Report.

Enclosed find $1 to pay for care of this paper and for the preparation and care of other papers if needed, and for paying postage. The understanding is that no other expense whatever is to be incurred at any time in this preliminary aid of my widow, if I leave one, in getting her pension.

NOTE: The $1 charged is accounted for as follows: 50 cents for postage and incidental expenses, and 50 cents for preparation of further papers, probably needed. At 15 cents a folio, the pending charge, the expense of preparation of further papers will probably exceed that we have estimated, but we place the whole expense at $1 in order to make a small and convenient sum for remitting.

Degree of disability. In my opinion the said Charles Zuail is 1/2 incapacitated for obtaining his subsistence by manual labor from the cause above stated.

Case of Robert Lavender No.774,177

On this 1 day of October , 1929, at Newton county of Jasper , State of Iowa before me, C. M. Gilpin , an inspector of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared Laura E. Lavender , who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to hewr during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

6—5121

I am 81 years old, house-keeper, residence and post office address is 623 - N. Erd Ave., East., Newton, Iowa.

I am the wife of claimant. Mr. Lavender is in a very feeble condition very hard of hearing, eyesight good for one of his age. He has not done any ma nual labor for a number of years. He is in the house most of the time. He is rather weak, and has night sweats, not every night at all, but when he gets the least nervous these sweats came on.

My husband was in good physical condition prior to December 1926 when he was operated for a bladder trouble, and a tube was inserted in the bladder and he has had to wear the tube ever since. He was c confined to the bed for about seven weeks and I had to dress and undr him and assist him in his personal wants. He improved some but has yet to wear that tube and it requires a great deal of my time in assisting him in keeping it in place , and keping him clean.

My husband also has a swelling of his limbs and his left side is numb and I fear he has suffered a slight stroke as his le ft hand is numb and cold all the while.

He needs the regular personal aid and attendance of another person in such acts as dressing, undressing and bathing. He can and does feed himself, But on account of his weakness and enfeebled con- dition he needs the regular personal aid and attendance od another person and has needed such aid and attendance since October 1, 1928 I am his regular attendant and givehim my constant attention.

I will also state that my husbands mind is very much impaired and is constantly growi ng worse. His eyesight is fair for one of his age, hearing very poor.

I have understood your questions and my answes are correctly recorded in this deposition.
