PREFATORY NOTE

This volume contains the papers presented at the Conference on the Economics of Residential Location and Urban Housing Markets held in Cambridge, Massachusetts, on May 15 and 16, 1975. We are indebted to the National Science Foundation for its support and to the members of the Program Committee—Gregory K. Ingram, chairman, Frank de Leeuw, and Eugene Smolensky—for their guidance. We wish to thank Ester Moskowitz, who prepared the manuscript for press, and Felix Cooper, who drew the charts. Finally, we thank Anna Tremblay and Madeleine Lane for their help with preparations for the conference.
