CONTRIBUTIONS AND SUBSCRIPTIONS

Contributors or subscribers of $75 or more a year are entitled to receive a complimentary copy of each publication issued during the year — books, Occasional Papers, Technical Papers, and the Annual Report — in advance of release to the public. In addition, the subscriber is entitled to a 33 1/3 per cent discount on earlier National Bureau publications or additional copies of current publications.

A special subscription rate of $35 a year, providing the same privileges as above, is open to faculty members and students of recognized educational institutions.

A limited faculty-student rate of $5 a year, open to faculty members and students of recognized educational institutions, entitles the subscriber to a complimentary copy of each Occasional Paper, Technical Paper, and the Annual Report, and to a 40 per cent discount on any publication purchased.

For those who wish to subscribe only to Occasional Papers and Technical Papers, the subscription rate is $4 for five issues. A subscriber of $4 receives the next five papers and the Annual Report.

Send contributions or subscriptions, or address inquiries, to William J. Carson, Executive Director of the National Bureau.

Contributions to the National Bureau are deductible in calculating federal income taxes.

ORDERING NATIONAL BUREAU PUBLICATIONS

Subscribers will receive new publications automatically in accordance with their subscription, and should order other publications from the National Bureau.

Nonsubscribers should order books from Princeton University Press, Princeton, New Jersey, and order papers and the Annual Report from the National Bureau.

(If mail address is New York City, include
4 per cent sales tax with remittance.)
