

Index

- Accruals on government bonds, 88
Accuracy, test of, 65
Adjustments necessary to combine data, 96-8
Analytic distributions, 12, 32
- BAIRD, ENID, 98
- Boarders
(see Roomers and boarders)
- Borrowings, 14, 27, 32, 108
- Business income, 32, 59, 60, 89, 103, 105
- Capital gains and losses, 14, 27, 32, 54, 60, 71, 77, 78, 88, 107, 108
- Census of Population
concept of income, 61
coverage, 82
period covered, 61
recipient unit, 61, 79
tabulation, 62
wages and salaries, 77, 80, 95
- Class interval
choice of, 109
common to all studies, 83
federal income tax data, 54-5
National Health Survey, 58
recommendations for, 110
- Comparison concept of income, 101, 114 compared with total income, 108-9 components of, 103-4
excluded items, 107 related to specific, 103
(see also Concept of income)
- Concept of income
as determinant of variables, 30-1
Census of Population, 61
common denominator, 17, 103 components, 103
Consumer Purchases Study, 59-60
Delaware Income Study, 74 determined by purposes, 14-6 differentiated from wealth, 87-8
federal income tax data, 54, 71, 77
Financial Survey of Urban Housing, 59, 71, 78
for national total, 16 for synthetic distributions, 16 items included and excluded, 13-4
Michigan Unemployment Census, 58,
78
Minnesota Income Study, 60, 78
National Health Survey, 59, 71, 78
net accretion, 13
Social Security data, 77
state income tax data, 77
Wisconsin Income Study, 56
- Consumer Purchases Study
adjustment for incomplete reports, 64-5
combined with federal tax data, 60
concept of income, 59-60, 78
coverage, 59, 60, 82-3
expansion to cover entire population, 94-5
farm income, 85
income status of groups not reporting income, 64-5
nonmoney income, 86
percentage not reporting income, 64
period covered, 59, 80
purposes of, 59-60
recipient unit, 59
size distribution of income, 69
wages and salaries, 78
- Consumers' outlay, 16, 54

Coverage

- Census of Population, 82
- Consumer Purchases Study, 59, 60, 82-3
- Delaware Income Study, 55, 82
- Employment Security data, 57
- federal income tax data, 36, 82
- Financial Survey of Urban Housing, 59, 82
- inaccuracy, 64, 65
- incompleteness, 63-4, 65-6
- Michigan Unemployment Census, 58, 82
- Minnesota Income Study, 56, 82
- Montana Income Study, 56, 82
- National Health Survey, 58-9, 82
- Old-Age and Survivors Insurance data, 56
- recommendations for, 111
- Social Security data, 81, 82
- state income tax data, 55
- underrepresentation of upper income groups, 64
- Wisconsin Income Study, 56, 82

Delaware Income Study

- concept of income, 74
- coverage, 55, 82
- differences among distributions, 74
- farm income, 85
- period covered, 56, 80
- recipient unit, 55-6, 74
- size distribution of income, 75
- sources of distributions, 74
- tabulation, 56
- test of federal income tax data, 63

Depreciation, 77, 92

Disposition of income

- based on size distribution, 6
- determined by amount received, 6
- personal contrasted with national, 6
- purposes of, 6-8

Distribution of income

- factors affecting, 93-4
- (see also Size distribution of income)

Dividends, 14, 32, 77, 103, 106

DODD, PAUL A., 32

Employment Security data, 57

(see also Social Security data)

Entrepreneurial profits and losses, 27

Expenditures for consumption, 54

Family

- as recipient unit, 19-20, 25, 79-80
- composition of, 79-80
- income, 69-74
- (see also Recipient unit)
- Farm benefit payments, 105
- Farm income data, lack of, 84-6
- Federal income tax data
 - advantages and disadvantages, 62-3
 - approximation of family distribution, 71
 - class interval, 54-5
 - combined with Social Security data, 93
 - concept of income, 54, 71, 77
 - coverage, 36, 82
 - errors in, 54
 - joint returns, 54
 - limitation to, 55
 - number of income classes, 71
 - period covered, 36, 80
 - recipient unit, 36, 54, 71
 - size distribution of income, 72, 74
 - Source Book, 55
 - tabulation, 55
 - tested by Delaware study, 63
 - understatement in, 62-3
- Fiduciaries, 104, 106
- Financial Survey of Urban Housing
 - advantages, 59
 - concept of income, 59, 71, 78
 - coverage, 59, 82
 - limitations, 59
 - number of income classes, 71
 - percentage not reporting income, 64
 - period covered, 80
 - recipient unit, 71
 - size distribution of income, 72
 - wages and salaries, 78
- FINE, SELMA, 98
- Gambling, 16, 32, 107
- Gifts, 27, 33, 60, 77, 78, 90, 107
- Gross income, 89-90
- Illustrative income distributions, 68-76
- Imputed income, 29, 77, 78, 87, 107
- Imputed rent, 60, 78, 106
- Income
 - from property, 59, 78, 80, 89
 - from roomers, 16, 59, 60, 103, 105
 - imputed, 29, 77, 78, 87, 107

- Income—continued in kind, 77, 104
 nonmoney, 86-7 related to social activity, 8-10 related to welfare, 10-1 (see also Gross income, Net income, and Size distribution of income)
- Income, concept of (see Concept of income)
- Income, disposition of (see Disposition of income)
- Income, distribution by size
 (see Size distribution of income)
- Individual
 as recipient unit, 19, 79
 definition varying, 79
 income, 74-6
- Inheritance, 16, 60, 90, 107, 108
- Integration, 76-84
- Interest, 32, 54, 77, 103, 106
- Inventory changes in, 89, 105
 profits and losses, 105
- Joint returns, 54, 55, 71, 74, 96
- KNEELAND, HILDEGARDE, 94
- Medical care, expenditures on, 14
- MERWIN, CHARLES L., JR., 4
- Michigan Unemployment Census
 concept of income, 58, 78
 coverage, 58, 82
 period covered, 80
 recipient unit, 58, 79
 tabulation, 58
- Minnesota Field Survey
 (see Minnesota Income Study)
- Minnesota Income Study
 concept of income, 60, 78
 coverage, 60-1, 82
 earnings and income compared, 61
 farm income, 85
 federal data combined with Social Security data, 93 flexibility, 60-1 integration of tax data, 61
 nonmoney income, 86
 percentage not reporting income, 64
 period covered, 60
 recipient unit, 60
 semi-capital items, 90
 unemployment compensation, 61
 wage records, 61
- Montana Income Study
 coverage, 56, 82
 period covered, 56, 80
 tabulation, 56
- National Health Survey
 class interval, 58
 concept of income, 59, 71, 78
 coverage, 58-9, 82
 income status of groups not reporting income, 64
 number of income classes, 71
 percentage not reporting income, 64
 period covered, 59, 80
 recipient unit, 71
 size distribution of income, 72
 tabulation, 59
 wages and salaries, 78
- National Resources Committee, 31, 60, 95
 (see also Consumer Purchases Study)
- Net income definition of, 89 derived from gross, 89-90 legal concept of, 54
- Net taxable income, 77
- Net worth, change in, 89
- Non-income receipts, 108
- Nonmoney income, 86-7
- Old-Age and Survivors Insurance data compilation, 57
 coverage, 56
 excluded groups, 56
 limitations to, 57
 quarterly reports, 57 size distribution of income for Delaware, 75
 wages and salaries, 93
 (see also Social Security data)
- PENROSE, E. F., 32
- Pensions, 54, 77, 78, 90, 103, 105, 107
- Period covered
 calendar year as, 113
 Census of Population, 61
 Consumer Purchases Study, 59, 80
 Delaware Income Study, 56, 80
 factors affecting, 92
 federal income tax data, 36, 80
 Financial Survey of Urban Housing, 80

- Period covered—continued
 inconsistency of, 80-1
 Michigan Unemployment Census, 80
 Minnesota Income Study, 60
 Montana Income Study, 56, 80
 National Health Survey, 59, 80 related to concept, 27 related to purposes, 26-7
 Social Security data, 80-1
 value of shortness, 27-9
 Wisconsin Income Study, 56, 80
- Period of income cumulation, determinants of, 25-6
- Personal expenses, treatment of, 90
- Professional income, 103, 105
- Recipient unit
 as determinant of variables, 30-1
 Census of Population, 61, 79
 characteristics of, 18-9
 Consumer Purchases Study, 59
 Delaware Income Study, 55-6, 74
 determination of, 18 family as, 19-20, 25, 79-80
 federal income tax data, 36, 54, 71
 Financial Survey of Urban Housing, 71
 heterogeneity of, 22
 homogeneity affected, 22-4 homogeneity of, 20-1
 inconsistency of, 111-3
 individual as, 19, 79
 Michigan Unemployment Census, 58, 79
 Minnesota Income Study, 60
 National Health Survey, 71
 relative homogeneity, 22
 Social Security data, 79
- REED, LOUIS S., 31
- Relief payments, 59, 60, 78, 104, 107
- Rent, 104, 106
- Roomers and boarders, income from, 16, 59, 60, 103, 105
- Royalties, 104, 106
- Savings, 7, 16, 22, 60
- Semi-capital items, 90
- Size distribution of income as dependent variable, 11-3 as independent variable, 5-11 basic to analysis of disposition, 6 construction of, for United States, 96-8
- Consumer Purchases Study, 69
 Delaware Income Study, 75
 federal income tax data, 72, 74
 Financial Survey of Urban Housing, 72
 National Health Survey, 72
 Social activity, related to income, 8-10
 Social family, 20
 Social Security data combined with federal income tax data, 93
 concept of income, 77
 coverage, 81, 82
 period covered, 80-1
 recipient unit, 79
 reliability of, 63
 (see also Old-Age and Survivors Insurance data and Employment Security data)
- Sources of data, 34 advantages and disadvantages of various, 58
- State income tax data
 coverage, 55
 Delaware, 55-6
 Montana, 56
 Wisconsin, 56
- Statutory net income, 71, 74
- Study of Consumer Purchases
 (see Consumer Purchases Study)
- Synthetic distributions, 12
- Taxes, 77, 91-2
- Total income, related to income from property, 89
- Trusts, 104, 106
- TUCKER, RUFUS S., 98
- Undistributed profits and losses, 88
- Unemployment compensation, 61, 107
- Value of food produced and consumed, 78, 97, 107
- Wages and salaries
 affected by business fluctuations, 96 before deductions, 104
 Census of Population, 77, 80, 95
 Consumer Purchases Study, 78
 estimated distribution, 95 excluding payment in kind, 104
 Financial Survey of Urban Housing, 78

Wages and salaries—continued

- Michigan Unemployment Census, 58
- National Health Survey, 78
- related to other income, 80
- related to total income, 96
- Social Security data, 77
- Welfare, related to income, 10-1

- WICKENS, DAVID L., 72
- Wisconsin Income Study
 - concept of income, 56
 - coverage, 56, 82
 - farm income, 85
 - period covered, 56, 80
 - tabulation, 56