Studies in International Taxation

Edited by ALBERTO GIOVANNINI, R. GLENN HUBBARD, and JOEL SLEMROD

This volume presents pioneering empirical research on how taxes affect the investment and financing decisions of multinational corporations in today's global economy. The authors examine international financial management, business investment, and international income shifting. They discuss the form of ownership of foreign corporate equity, the impact of tax incentives on R&D activities, and the fact that foreign companies in the United States pay lower taxes than do domestic companies.

An NBER Project Report

Trade and Protectionism

Edited by TAKATOSHI ITO and ANNE O. KRUEGER

American and East Asian scholars look at the current global trading system and at the potential threats to East Asian economies from possible regional arrangements, such as separate trading blocs in the Western Hemisphere.

NBER—East Asia Seminar on Economics, Volume 2

The Political Economy of Tax Reform

Edited by TAKATOSHI ITO and ANNE O. KRUEGER

Experts from Taiwan, Korea, the Philippines, Japan, and Thailand, as well as the United States, Canada, and Israel, address the importance of the East Asian region for the international economy. Focusing on the complexities of tax reform, the contributors examine the problems of interdependence in a global economy.
