

CALL FOR PAPERS
THE ANNUAL MEETING
OF THE
AMERICAN LAW AND ECONOMICS ASSOCIATION

May 16-17, 2008
New York City

AIM:

The American Law and Economics Association holds each spring an annual meeting which brings together researchers from law schools, economics departments, business schools, and elsewhere to present and discuss current projects on a wide range of topics in the field of law and economics. During the meeting, sessions on different subjects are held in parallel with the goal of enabling the presentation of a significant number of papers by a wide range of authors. The eighteenth annual meeting of the Association will take place this year at Columbia Law School in New York City on May 16 and 17, 2008.

TOPICS:

The Conference will have one or more sessions in each of the following areas of law and economics:

- Antitrust and Regulated Industries
- Bankruptcy and Creditors' Rights
- Behavioral Law and Economics
- Civil Rights and Discrimination
- Contracts
- Commercial Law
- Corporate Law and Corporate Governance: Policy and Theory
- Corporate Law and Corporate Governance: Empirical
- Corporate and Securities Law: Comparative and International
- Securities Regulation, Financial Institutions, and Capital Markets Regulation
- Theory of the Firm, including Non-Profits and Governmental Organizations
- Criminal Law and Enforcement
- Health Law
- Family and Gender
- Intellectual Property
- International Law, International Trade, and Immigration
- Labor and Employment Law
- Law and Development
- The Legal Process, including Litigation, Procedure, Evidence, Courts, and Lawyers
- Negotiations and Deal-Making
- Property
- Environmental Law and Economics
- Political Economy/Public Choice

- Public Law /Administrative Law
- Taxation, Public Finance, and Social Welfare
- Torts and Compensation Systems

MORE INFORMATION AND SUBMISSION INSTRUCTIONS:

Authors are invited to submit their papers electronically at the web site of the conference on the Association's website:

<http://www.amlecon.org/>

This website also includes further information about the submission process and the meeting, as well as about prior meetings of the Association.

DEADLINE:

Authors should submit their papers no later than Thursday, January 31, 2008.