

Lester and Judith Lave Professorship in Economics, Engineering, and Public Policy:

Carnegie Mellon University announces the creation of a chaired professorship (and associated fellowship) for a tenured, joint faculty appointment between the Tepper School of Business and the Department of Engineering and Public Policy in the College of Engineering. The endowed chair honors the enduring contributions to these two academic units by the late Dr. Lester B. Lave who was the Harry B. and James H. Higgins Professor of Economics and Finance and University Professor.

We seek candidates who possess substantial backgrounds in science or engineering, who hold a Ph.D. in economics and have an established track record of working on public policy problems in which the technical elements matter.

Please send curriculum vitae, a list of references, and five sample publications to Ms. Patricia Porter, Posner Hall 254, Carnegie Mellon University, Tepper School of Business, 5000 Forbes Avenue, Pittsburgh, PA 15213, USA (pp9h@andrew.cmu.edu). -If you have any questions about the application, please send an email to Ms. Porter.

In order to ensure full consideration, completed applications must be received by March 12, 2012.

Carnegie Mellon is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer with particular interest in identifying women and minority applicants for faculty positions.