

Please follow the instructions below to hire a casual, hourly research assistant. This would include, for example, a student working full-time in the summer and part-time during the academic year. If you intend to hire a research assistant to work consistently more than 24 hours per week for an extended period of time, please contact your grants administrator or the NBER Human Resources Office, hr@nber.org, to discuss the hiring process.

It is ESSENTIAL that the completed packet be returned to the NBER BEFORE the Research Assistant begins work.

Please make sure the student is eligible to work in the U.S.. By law, an I-9 form must be completed within 3 days of an individual's employment date. As the student's supervisor, you must complete and sign section 2 of the I-9 form.

If you do not know your NBER account number (grant number), please contact your grant or program administrator.

Hiring Foreign Students

In general, the NBER is able to hire foreign students on F-1 or J-1 visas as hourly research assistants. The first step to hiring a foreign student should be a discussion between the student and his/her home institution's International Students Office. Each visa has its own set of regulations we must follow, but as the visa sponsor the home institution may impose their own more strict interpretation of the rules. The NBER can advise you on the different categories of employment (OPT, off-campus employment, etc.) but it is the student's responsibility to maintain his/her status and communication with the ISO is critical.

Additional information will be required to complete the I-9 form for students on F-1 or J-1 visas. Please contact Mui Cheung before completing the form.

Most students on F-1 or J-1 visas are considered "non-resident aliens" by the Internal Revenue Service. Instructions on how non-resident aliens need to complete a W-4 are included in the new hire packet. If the student wants more information, please direct him/her to IRS publication 519, "U.S. Tax Guide for Aliens," on the IRS web site.
