

RESUME

Ellen M. Winsor
736 East Shore Road
Jamestown, RI 02835-1845
401-458-5750 (cell)

exmouthri@aol.com, ellenwinsor@cox.net

COLLEGE: Distinction in Economics

- BA, Magna Cum Laude with distinction in economics, Wells College, Aurora, NY. First three years Simmons College, Boston, MA.

GOVERNMENT: Elected Office; David and Goliath Leadership Two States; Senate Testimony

- Town Councilor, 2009 – 2012, Jamestown, RI opposite Newport, RI, Naval War College and NUWC.
- Testified: RI Senate LNG Task Force as guest of RI Senate President Teresa Paiva Weed.
- Newport Daily News declared on front page: ‘Councilor Winsor Leader LNG’ when announcing Hess Oil withdrew LNG terminal and cryogenic pipeline. Founded LNG Working Group of citizen-experts.
- Public presentations secured signatures of 14 municipalities in RI and MA, Governor, and gubernatorial candidates, plus taxpayer organizations for ‘resolution’ against Hess Oil endeavor. Researched and drafted resolution with LNG WG, plus collaborations with MA LNG Group(s) and SAVE THE BAY.
- Pentagon guest of Navy Deputy Assistant Secretary Thomas Hicks. Discussed specific innovators and innovations, prototype testing idea involving municipalities plus military site collaboration in RI.
- Published prototype idea Op Ed for expedited technology product testing opportunities and job creation.
- Newport Daily News endorsed reelection to Town Council and prototype testing goals.

FINANCE: Stock Analysis Yields Economic Forecasting of Tech Bubble & 2008; Endowment Safety

- Private stock analysis twenty-five years: Value approach focused on corporate earnings.
- Certified Financial Planner examinations: Financial Planning, Investments, Insurance, Retirement Planning, Estate planning, College for Financial Planning, Denver, CO.
- $10M building endeavor as Board of Director, Treasurer, and Chairman of the Finance Committee evoked letter to RI Governor’s Chief of Staff by president of $400M credit union, “Ellen provided inspiration, innovation, consistency and persistence. She thinks “outside of the box” and challenged the organization to do the same. As a result of Ellen’s financial leadership, the Potter League is in a healthy financial condition, a significant accomplishment in these challenging economic times.”

MEDICAL: Leader of Staff and Students; “Outside of the Box” Corporate and Vet Collaboration

- Supervisor, Clinical Instructor, Respiratory Therapy Department, Harvard’s Beth Israel Hospital, Boston. Education: Respiratory Therapy Program, New England Education Center, MA.
- Cancer approach generates interest of leading research veterinarians and Nutramax Corporation Ph.D.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS: Treasurer and Executive Committee

- Chaired Finance Committee Potter League for Animal’s $10M building campaign deemed Gold LEED.
- Executive Committee and Board of Directors Potter League for Animals 2005 - 2011.

CONFERENCES: Technology, Energy, Venture Capital, Military, plus Ideas Fest

Attended MIT Emerging Technology, Energy and Venture Capital Conference(s), Naval War College Current Strategies Forum(s), ARPA-E conference(s) and Aspen Ideas Festival (2013).

INTERESTS: Competitive Sailboat Racing, Water Supply Protection, Architecture.

- Raced J24 sailboats 15 years & Fleet 50 Newport, RI. Placed 7th for the USA out of 38 International boats Rolex Women’s Keelboat Regatta. Leader in USEPA Sole Source Aquifer Jamestown designation.
- Architecture courses at RISD. Built ‘replica’ of butterfly shaped house in Jamestown, RI, a landmark house in architectural history, 1897, Exmouth, England. Selected fifth-year RISD student as project architect, with faculty sign-off of plans, as an example of “out of the box” thinking creating opportunity.