

NBER SUMMER INSTITUTE 2006

CALL FOR PAPERS

The NBER's 2006 Summer Institute will be held in Cambridge, Massachusetts from July 10 to August 4, 2006. Workshops will be held on the following subjects:

- economics of aging
- American economic history
- economic fluctuations
- financial markets
- monetary economics
- asset pricing
- corporate finance
- industrial organization
- international studies
- economics of children and family
- productivity
- environmental economics
- economics of education
- health economics
- law and economics
- taxation
- labor economics

Please indicate which workshop you would like your paper considered for.

The NBER provides continental breakfast and lunch each day, as well as limited support services. While the NBER will arrange housing for participants, those whose papers are selected for presentation and invited to attend any of the workshops must pay for their own transportation and lodging.

Economists at the assistant professor level or above who are interested in participating in the 2006 Summer Institute should submit a curriculum vitae and a one-page abstract of any paper they would like to present by January 31, 2006. Submissions should be sent to:

Summer Institute
National Bureau of Economic Research
1050 Massachusetts Avenue
Cambridge, MA 02138

You can also email submissions to confer@nber.org
in either a pdf, Word or WordPerfect file