

invites applications for a full-time position at the rank of

Professor / Associate Professor of Development Economics with an interest in sustainable development and international trade starting on 1 September 2008 or a mutually agreed date.

Candidates must hold a Ph.D. in economics (or equivalent) and have a strong publication record in development Economics. A proven interest in the field of sustainable development and trade will be an asset. The successful candidate is expected to teach and conduct research in this area and to supervise masters and doctoral theses.

The language of instruction is English or French, but candidates are expected to soon acquire, if not already possess, a working knowledge of the other language.

The Institute specifically encourages women to apply.

Applications, including a detailed curriculum vitae and a list of publications, must reach the Director, Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies, P.O. Box 136, 1211 Geneva 21, Switzerland (fax: + 41 22 731 27 77, email: director@hei.unige.ch) by 30 November 2007. General terms of appointment for this position may be obtained upon request.