

Curriculum Vitae

Tommaso Bondi

Education

- Ph.D. in Economics, NYU Stern School of Business, 2014-2019 (Expected).
Fields of Interest: Industrial Organisation, Economics of the Internet, Economics of Education.
- Visiting Scholar, UC Berkeley Haas School of Business, February 2014 - June 2014.
- M.Sc. Economic and Social Sciences (cum laude), Bocconi University, 2011-2013.
Master's Thesis: "Strategic Forecasting: Aggregation and Acquisition of Information".
Advisors: Prof. Marco Ottaviani and Prof. Alfredo Di Tillio.
- B.Sc. Mathematics, University of Milan, 2008-2011.

Research - Work In Progress

- "The Role of Individual Standards in Online Reviews".
- "A Sequential Method for Detecting Fake Online Reviews".
- "Optimal Reservation Quotas with Peer Effects" (with Matteo Paradisi, Harvard).
- "Student Exchanges, Locational Choices and the Returns to Elite Colleges" (with Luca Citino, LSE).

Research Experience

- Research Assistant for Prof. Nicola Pavoni, Bocconi University, May 2013 - October 2013.
- Research Assistant for Prof. Marco Ottaviani, Bocconi University, November 2013 - February 2014.

Honors and Awards

- Yale Summer School in Behavioral Finance, June 2015.
- NYU Stern School of Business Scholarship for Ph.D. Studies, 2014-2019.
- Marco Fanno Scholarship 2013, awarded to the two best graduates in Economics from an Italian University.
- Bocconi Graduate Merit Award, 2011-2013.
- Silver Medal, Italian Mathematical Olympiads, May 2008.

Languages

Italian (native), English (fluent).