Acknowledgments

This volume contains edited versions of papers presented at the NBER's East Asia Seminar on Economics eleventh annual conference, held in Seoul, Korea, 22–24 June, 2000.

We are indebted to members of the program committee who organized the conference, and to Chung-Hua Institution, Taipei; the Hong Kong University of Science and Technology; Korea Development Institute, Seoul; Korea Institute for International Economic Policy; and the Tokyo Center for Economic Research.

The KDI and KIEP were the local hosts. The conference arrangements were made by Kirsten Foss Davis and Brett Maranjian, and were superb. All the participants enjoyed the venue and the wonderful facilities in which the conference was held.

The National Bureau of Economic Research provided logistical support. We are greatly indebted to the NBER, and the Asian institutions which supported the research and the conference.
