

---

Subject Index

- Accounting systems: last-in-first-out (LIFO) and first-in-first-out (FIFO), 95–96; one-book and two-book, 97–101
- Alternative minimum tax (AMT): determinants of liability for, 40–41; incentives for income repatriation under, 43, 45–48; incentives in corporate, 3, 42–44, 49; rules of, 39; tax treatment of interest expense with, 83; U.S. tax paid on foreign income under, 43
- Averaging, worldwide, 106
- Borrowing. See Debt, foreign-source
- Capital: conditions for leasing as opposed to owning, 90–92; influence of domestic and foreign tax rules on cost of, 21–22; mobility, 17, 35. See also Cost of capital
- Capital budget investment allocation, 16–17
- Capital flows: cross-border financing of foreign affiliates, 17–18; cross-border flow with FDI, 17–18; gross and net international, 15; impact of global tax policies, 97
- Capital market, segmented global, 15–16
- Corporate tax. See Taxation
- Corporations. See Firms; Multinational corporations (MNCs)
- Cost of capital: defined, 22; with dividend repatriation tax price changes, 78; foreign investment financed by local borrowing, 26–27; influence of taxes on, 21; methodology to calculate, 23; for multinational firms in Japan, 24–25; for U.S. and local firms in foreign markets, 23–24
- Data sources: analysis of firm behavior under different accounting systems, 100–101; analysis of MNC reaction to tax reform (1986), 87–88; for dividend repatriation analysis, 68–69; of multinational firm R&D, 57–59; outbound FDI, 74, 77
- Debt: differences in effect of domestic and foreign borrowing, 18–19; foreign-based local, 26–27
- Debt, foreign-source: as exchange risk hedge, 27; in financing of U.S. foreign affiliates, 17–18, 26; U.S. multinational, 14–18. See also Cost of capital; Interest expense
- Discount rate, 22–23
- Dividends, corporate: present value with FDI, 18–19; trapped-equity or tax-capitalization approach, 76n10
- Dividends, foreign-source: cost of capital with credits for, 24–25; model of repatriation, 67–71; tax price of remittances, 64, 65–71, 78; variability of repatriation tax on, 64. See also Tax price
- Employment, U.S. overseas affiliates, 8
- Equity financing: foreign investment by U.S. foreign affiliates, 17–18; tax cost for U.S. firms, 27
- Export markets, U.S. firms, 9–10, 12
- Firms: AMT, 39–40; behavior under different

Firms (cont.)

- accounting systems, 100–101; cost of capital in foreign markets, 23–25; cost of equity financing, 27; differences in domestic and foreign investment, 18; incentives for foreign-source income, 42–44; internationalization of U.S. and foreign, 8–9; overseas employment in U.S. manufacturing firms, 8; parent, 52, 55–57; royalty tax rates of U.S., 57–60; U.S. export markets of, 9–10, 12. See also Foreign affiliates; Multinational corporations (MNCs)
- Foreign affiliates: financing of, 17–18; provision of new technology, 53–56; royalties on parent-firm technology, 52, 56–57; tax exclusion for unrepatriated profits, 104. See also Dividends, foreign-source; Foreign tax credits; Income, foreign-source; Royalties
- Foreign direct investment (FDI): circumvention of global capital market segmentation, 15–18; with dividend repatriation tax price changes, 78; effect of taxes on, 4, 74–75; effect on domestic investment of outbound, 16–17; expanded outbound, 13–14; present value of dividends and interest per dollar of, 18–19; in United States, 8
- Foreign tax credits: for AMT and regular income tax purposes, 41–43; in calculation of dividend remittance, 65–66; effect on repatriation tax price, 78; limits on claims of, 105–6; of MNCs under Tax Reform Act (1986), 89–93; as shelter for U.S.-based MNCs' income, 40; for taxes paid by U.S. foreign subsidiaries, 14; U.S. tax policy for, 55, 63, 103, 105–6
- Fungibility, financial, 85
- Incentives: in corporate AMT, 3, 42–44, 49; for domestic technology production, 52; for income repatriation, 42–44, 48; MNC investment, 41–42; MNC locational, 96; of MNCs to perform R&D, 56–59; tax policy to reduce transfer pricing, 34–35; under Tax Reform Act (1986), 82–87
- Income, corporate: AMT rules for domestic, 40–41; AMT rules for U.S.-based MNCs, 40; as labor income, 36; tax treatment of interest expense, 82–87
- Income, foreign-source: incentives for firms to receive, 42–44; interest cost deductions of, 83–86; part excluded from tax, 103–4; reinvestment of profits by U.S. companies, 104; royalties received by U.S. parent firms as, 55; taxation of U.S. corporations, 54, 63, 71–72, 103–6. See also Dividends, foreign-source; Foreign tax credits
- Income repatriation: incentives for, 42–44, 48; time frame for taxation under U.S. law, 104; timing under AMT rules, 40; U.S. tax policy for, 40, 63
- Income shifting: cross-border, 32, 34–35; effect on tax policy, 30; individual, 29–30, 32; transfer pricing as form of, 34
- Interest expense: allocation between domestic- and foreign-source income, 83–87; deductibility under tax code, 81–83; tax code allocation of MNC, 81–83
- Inventory accounting, LIFO and FIFO, 95–96
- Investment: abroad, 15; discount rate of domestic, 22; tax cost of domestic equity financing, 26–27; U.S. outflows of direct, 7–8
- Investment, corporate: differences in domestic and foreign, 18; discount rate, foreign and domestic, 22–23; effect of outbound on domestic, 16–17; incentives of MNCs, 41–42; tax cost of foreign equity financing, 26–27. See also Foreign direct investment (FDI)
- ITT v. United States*, 84n5
- Labor market: effect of overseas production on, 10–11; overseas and domestic employment, 8, 12
- Multinational corporations (MNCs): AMT incidence, 30–40, 45–47, 49; analysis of reaction to Tax Reform Act (1986), 87–94; declining role, 8; effect of AMT rules on, 40–41; exports from overseas affiliates, 9; with foreign production locations, 11–12; income repatriation incentives, 42–44; in international technology transfer, 53–56; investment incentives, 41–42; locational incentives, 96; new technology provided by, 53–56; overseas employment, 8; R&D incentives, 56–57; taxes owed U.S. government, 103; U.S. taxation of repatriated income, 40. See also Foreign affiliates
- Multinational corporations (MNCs), foreign: taxed on worldwide basis, 97

- National income, U.S., 18–19
- Portfolio capital mobility, 17
- Production: incentives for domestic technology, 52; internationalization of U.S. and foreign firms, 7–8; world market share with overseas, 2
- Remittance. See Dividends, foreign-source; Income repatriation
- Repatriation. See Dividends, foreign-source; Income repatriation
- Research and development (R&D): response to royalty tax rates, 59–61; as substitute for imported technology, 52, 60; tax subsidies for, 51–52; tax treatment of spending by U.S. multinationals, 54–55; of U.S. foreign affiliates, 53–54
- Royalties: payments by U.S. foreign affiliates, 52, 59–60; U.S. tax policy for, 55–56
- Royalty tax rates: relation to levels in U.S. firms of R&D activity, 57–60; response of R&D activity to, 59–61
- Saving, domestic, 15
- Subsidies, R&D-related, 51–52
- Taxation: capital income tax, 35; current U.S. rate for corporate income tax, 103; of firm's domestic investment, 18; by foreign governments of U.S. foreign subsidiaries, 14, 18; open economy corporate income tax, 30–32; uses of corporate income tax, 32–34
- Tax policy, global: influence on capital flows, 97; R&D incentives under, 52, 56–59
- Tax policy, U.S.: avoidance of double taxation, 103, 105; deductibility of MNC interest expense, 81; deferral of U.S. taxation, 103–4; effect on overseas investment decisions, 75–78; implications of tax price effect on dividend repatriation, 71–72; income shifting to reduce liability, 29–30, 32; influence on R&D, 52; R&D-related subsidies, 51–52; to reduce transfer pricing incentives, 34–35; related to foreign tax credits, 105–6; response to cross-border income shifting, 34–35; response to transfer pricing, 34–35; for royalties, 55–56; for royalties received by parent firms, 52, 55; taxation of foreign-source income, 34–35
- Tax price: of dividend remittance, 65–71, 76; effect of permanent changes in dividend repatriation, 78; effect of variation in, 71; effect on dividend repatriation, 68–71
- Tax rates: on AMT income, 40; as determinant of foreign investment discount rate, 22–23; effect on cost of capital, 21–24. See also Royalty tax rates
- Tax Reform Act (1986): analysis of MNC reaction to, 87–94; corporate AMT, 39; effect on MNCs, 4; effect on pooling of U.S. firm's global income, 25–26; incentives, 82–87; interest allocation rules, 81–82, 86; limits on income shifting, 32; R&D expenses under, 54–55; tax treatment of MNC interest expenses, 81–87; treatment of foreign assets and interest deductions, 86–87
- Technology: impact on R&D of imported, 54; incentives for production of domestic, 52; provision by MNCs, 53–56; R&D as substitute for imported, 52, 60; royalty payments on foreign, 52, 56–57, 59
- Technology transfer: factors influencing, 57; role of MNCs in international, 53–56
- Transfer pricing: effect of capital income taxes on, 35; as income shifting, 32, 34–35; tax policy response to, 34–35