

---

Subject Index

- Academic performance: and employment, 11, 279, 306; and post-high school education, 300; and work ethic, 306
- Accuracy of data. See Bias in surveys
- Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC), 122, 507
- Affirmative action programs, 394
- Age: and job mobility, 7, 242–43; and job search, 261–262; and job tenure, 271; and job separation rates, 244, 246, 477; and labor force participation rates, 122; and unemployment rates, 122, 252, 258–59, 268
- Antidiscrimination legislation and black wage rates, 195
- Apprenticeship in Britain, 507
- Availability of jobs, 141, 205, 220, 227
- Baby boom. See Cohort overcrowding
- Baseball, black employment and wages in, 343
- Bias in surveys: female, 395; gross flow, 233–34; military service, 352; noninterviewee, 95–97; proxy, 89–92, 94, 99–101, 106–7, 112, 341; reporting, 202; rotation, 97, 107, 109; student, 234
- Black youths: antidiscrimination legislation and, wage rate, 195; and cohort overcrowding, 164, 172, 177–78; and dead-end jobs, 445; and decline of inner cities, 195–98, 342; and discouraged workers, 47, 49; and discrimination, 118, 343; duration of, nonemployment, 216, 410; duration of, unemployment, 44, 239; employment ratios, 42, 284; employment trend, 176, 194; entrant employment, 50, 218; female, nonemployment and wages, 411, 414; industrial mix of, employment, 177; and job tenure and training, 263; and layoffs and hirings, 174; marital status and, unemployment, 263; military service and, unemployment, 175; nonemployment rates, 26, 286; nonstudent, employment, 462; participation rates, 44, 176; persistence of, unemployment, 263; productivity, 194–95; school enrollment, 13, 137, 178–79, 194; search theory and, unemployment, 262–63; unemployment, 2, 4–5, 168, 176, 193, 284; wage rate, 2, 140; welfare and, unemployment, 122. See also Racial differences
- Blue-collar workers, 438
- Britain: business cycle, 520–21, 533–34; demand elasticity of youths in, 524; female employment trend in, 522; female wage trend in, 522; female/male substitutability in, 524; participation rates in, 539; school enrollment rates in, 539; supplementary benefits in, 526; unions and youth wages in, 519–20
- Britain and the United States compared: apprenticeship programs, 507; definition of employment, 526; definition of student, 525; demand on participation rates, 532; duration of employment, 513–14;

- Britain and United States (cont.)
 duration of unemployment, 511, 533;
 family income and participation rates,
 505–6; female unemployment rates, 502;
 income maintenance, 526, 540–41; job search, 511; job turnover rate, 511; male participation rates, 503–4; measure of unemployment, 502–3; minimum wage,
 508–9; minimum wage and job search,
 533; repetition of unemployment, 513;
 school enrollment rates, 539; social cost of youth unemployment, 511, 512, 532, 540–41; social security, 506, 512;
- British Careers Service, 509, 538
- Capital and substitution, 535
- Catch-up effect, 382, 409
- Changes in the labor market in 1970s, 116, 132
- Childbearing and female nonemployment, 425
- Chronically unemployed, 2
- Cohort overcrowding: and aspirations,
 155–56; and black participation rates,
 172; and black unemployment, 164, 172,
 177–78; echo effect, 193; and employment trend, 163–64; 179; and female unemployment, 164; imperfect substitution, 155, 190–92; job tenure, 248; model, 157–60; and participation rates, 156;
 and labor supply, 177; white unemployment, 164, 172
- College attendance and employment, 310, 315
- College dropouts and employment, 310
- Community effect, 123
- Comprehensive Employment and Training
 Act (CETA), 209
- Concentration of unemployment, 2, 6, 354;
 among demographic groups, 213, 216;
 among high school dropouts, 24–26;
 among nonstudents, 22, 213. See also Racial differences in unemployment
- Crime: as alternative to employment, 65, 68; cost/benefit of, 64, 66–67; institutional approach to, 64–65, 67; subculture and, 63–64, 66.
- Crowding theories and female jobs, 393, 394
- Current Population Survey (CPS), 18, 37,
 76–77, 200–201. See also CPS/NLS comparison; CPS/NLS 72 comparison; Bias in surveys
- CPS/NLS comparison: age weights, 81; employment rates, 82; geographic, 340; high school dropouts, 340; methods, 87, 88;
 participation rates, 82; racial differences, 84; sampling, 97; school enrollment, 84;
 significance of differences, 105–6, 109;
 unemployment rates, 82; weeks worked,
 82, 84. See also Bias in surveys
- CPS/NLS72 comparison, 87, 111, 282
- Cyclical unemployment, 173–74
- Damaged goods label, 424
- Dead-end jobs: advancement in, 427, 428;
 black youths and, 445; consequences of,
 428, 445–46;
- dual labor market and, 428; definition of,
 427; wage growth and, 450; human capital theory and, 428; incidence of unemployment with, 428; layoff rates, 446; occupation retention rates, 450; separation rates, 428; screening investment and, 446; Washington Post on, 427
- Demand: age and importance of, 132, 134;
 availability of jobs, 141, 205, 220; elasticity for youths, 525, 534–35; and employment, 8, 117, 127, 22–23, 129, 239, 482;
 equilibrium, 158; and female job entrant rate, 224; growth in late 1960s, 226; and industrial mix, 117, 121–22; minimum wage, 157, 192, 481, 482–83; on participation rates, 121, 220, 223; and school enrollment, 125, 127; and supply model, 158–60; and separation rates, 479; on unemployment rates, 3, 121, 223, 254, 480;
 and wage response, 117; and withdrawal rate, 224; for youths relative to adults, 515
- Demographic groups, 213, 216
- Dependents. See Family size
- Dictionary of Occupational Titles*, 448
- Discouraged workers, 23, 47, 49, 149, 354
- Discrimination, 118, 343, 393
- Disemployment index, 469–70
- Dual labor market, 350, 428
- Duncan Index, 428
- Duration dependence, 388, 406, 409
- Duration vs. concentration of unemployment, 211
- Echo effect, 193
- Elasticity of demand, 525, 534–35
- Employment: college attendance and, 310;
 college dropouts and, 310; community

- effect on, 123; demand and, 8, 117, 239, 461; duration of, 206–7, 218–19, 477; duration of, for nonstudents, 206; experience dependence and, 371; heterogeneity, 252, 309, 317, 320, 381, 383; high school work experience and, 12, 304; industrial mix, 8–9, 56; Markov process and, 359, 371–72; merits of, ratio, 36, 119, 223; military service and, 175, 179; minimum wage, 11, 120, 122, 132, 151, 187, 483, 533; nonstudent, rate, 6, 223, 461, 464; and participation rates, 149, 152; part-time, 56; persistence of, 279, 317, 324, 326, 361–62, 368–69; poverty residence, 9, 140, 150, 153, 461; public jobs and, 209, 342–43; rates, 4, 6, 23, 41, 202, 353, 461, 470, 476; relative wage on, 174; and school enrollment, 122, 149–50; seasonal, 9, 22, 208, 210; separate markets of, 56; serial correlation and, 324; test scores and, 307, 309; urban residence and, 309, 460–61; vocational education and, 307, 346; wage rate and, 56–59, 373; work ethic and, 306, 454. See also Academic performance and employment; Black youth, employment ratios
- Escape probabilities, Markov, 363, 365
- Experience dependence, 363–64, 371
- Farm workers, 437
- Family: contacts and youth employment, 465, 467; education in, 454; intra, job rationing, 466; and nonprice rationing mechanisms, 454; and sibling employment, 12, 462–66; work ethic, 454, 464. See also Household head and youth employment
- Family as an agent of social control, 386
- Family as alternative income source, 24
- Family income: and high school work experience, 309; and male participation rates, 454, 468–69; and nonstudent employment, 459; and personal contacts, 454, 466–67, 504–5; poverty level, and youth employment, 122–23, 470, 472; and student employment, 459; and youth employment, 12, 29, 30, 129, 137, 308, 459
- Family size (number of dependents): and employment, 405, 420; and wage rate, 314
- Female employment: affirmative action and, 394; catchup, 409; and cohort overcrowding, 161; crowding theories, 394; and demand, 222–23; and entrant rates, 218, 224; job crisis, 42; job segregation, 394; human capital and, 393, 394, 403, 424; industrial mix, 173; Markov process, 406, 409; signaling, 403; state dependence, 403, 420; and wage rate, 411
- Female labor force participation rates, 41, 193–94, 396, 454
- Female nonemployment: discrimination, 393; duration of, 213, 410; marriage and family, 174, 394, 405, 420, 425; and out-of-the-labor-force, 204, 207, 420; persistence of, 399–403; rates, 397
- Female unemployment rates, trend of, 41
- Fertility rates, 61–62
- Firm specific human capital, 259
- Frictional unemployment, 478, 481
- General information, 274
- Hard-core unemployment, 200, 216
- Help wanted ads, 227
- Heterogeneity: bias, 361, 373, 378, 420; and employment, 309, 317, 360, 381, 383, 403; and experience dependence, 364; nonstationarity of, 420; occupation and, 448, 449; state dependence, 320, 360, 373, 420; tenure dependence, 250, 252; unemployment, 236, 241, 361, 370–71; and wage rates, 321, 378. See also Age; Black youths; Family; Family income
- High school dropouts, 24–26
- High school work experience: and family income, 309; post high school employment, 12, 304; post high school wage rate, 310–11; and skills gained, 305–6; and work ethic, 306
- Household head and youth employment: education of, 462; employment status of, 462; female, 12, 122, 129, 462; occupation of, 454; self-employed male, 462
- Human capital: dead-end jobs, 428; depreciation, 394, 410; experience dependence, 364; female employment, 393, 394, 424; firm specific, 259; investment strategy, 394; job tenure, 259; nonemployment, 350; on-the-job-training, 368, 424; poverty track residence, 122–23; public policy, 384, 424; unemployment, 228; wage rate, 368

- Immigrants, 247–48
- Imperfect substitution and cohort overcrowding, 155, 190–92
- Implicit work contracts: alternative to, 496; considerations with, 490–91; efficiency, 493–94; enforcement of, 490, 493; minimum wage and, 479; separation rates and, 490
- Index of structural differences (ISD), 51
- Individual attributes. See Heterogeneity
- Industrial mix, 8–9, 56, 117, 121–22, 173, 177, 497
- Inner city residence, 342, 460–61
- Institutional approach to crime, 64–65, 67
- Investment strategy, human capital, 394
- Job aspirations: cohort overcrowding and, 155–56; of nonparticipants, 24, 46–47; minimum wage and, 495
- Job attachment, 350, 354
- Job changing: age and, 7, 242–43; and job tenure, 250, 259; and unemployment, 6–7, 243, 476
- Job creation, 229, 424
- Job finding rate: arbitrage opportunity and, 491; cost of, 479; determination of, 490–91; efficient, 488; minimum wage and, 491; optimal, 495; unemployment and, 478
- Job flight, 195–98
- Job loss rates: dead-end jobs and, 446; marriage and, 438; occupation, 237, 438; unions and, 439
- Job mobility. See Job changing
- Job quit rates, 259, 261, 438, 439
- Job rationing, nonprice, 454
- Job search: black unemployment and, 262–63; duration of, 260; duration of unemployment and, 236; hybrid model, 271–74; match assistance, 229; model, 259–60; over life cycle, 261–62; passive, 204, 233; and quit rates, 261; vacancies and, 261
- Job separation rates, 243–44, 478; age and, 244, 246, 477; cost/benefit of, 479, 495–96; deadend jobs and, 428; fluctuating demand and, 479; implicit contracts and, 490; minimum wage and, 482, 483–84; tenure and, 252; See also Labor turnover
- Job shopping, 228
- Job tenure: aging effect and, 271; cohort overcrowding and, 248; as firm specific human capital, 259; and job mobility, 250, 259; and quit rates, 259; and separation rates, 243–44, 252, 271; and tenure dependence, 241; on unemployment, 263, 271
- Labor force participation rates. See Participation rates, labor force
- Labor turnover: benefits to employer, 489–90; minimum wage and, 475–76, 494, 496; and unemployment, 199–200, 236, 242, 256, 274, 484. See also Job separation rates
- Leisure, 425, 510
- Level of economic activity. See Demand
- Marital status: and quit/loss rates, 438; and unemployment, 254, 263, 268, 436
- Markov-type process: bias, 365; and employment, 359, 371–72; escape probabilities of, 363, 365; and experience dependence, 364; and female employment, 406, 409; and unemployment, 359, 363, 387
- Measured wage vs. potential wage, 373
- Michigan Income Dynamics surveys, 236
- Migrant unemployment, 247, 248
- Military service: bias, 352; and employment, 175, 179; and participation rates, 152; and unemployment, 175; U1 measure of unemployment, 165–66; and the Vietnam war, 175, 352
- Minimum wage: employer adaption to, 490; and institutional effects, 157–58; noncompliance with, 534; as proxy for governmental transfer programs, 161; social, 186–87; and unions, 496
- Minimum wage, impact on: demand, 157, 481, 482–83, 492, 496; duration of employment, 11; employment, 120, 122, 132, 151, 187, 495, 533; job aspirations, 495; job finding rates, 475, 491; job turnover rates, 475–76, 494; implicit contracts, 479; participation rates, 132, 533, 534; separation rates, 482, 483–84; unemployment, 3, 10, 156, 174, 533, 534
- National Bureau of Economic Research, 1
- National Center for Educational Statistics, 7, 278
- National Crime Survey, 97–99
- National Longitudinal Study of the High School Class of 1972 (NLS72), 14, 37, 79–80, 278, 281. See also Bias in surveys
- National Longitudinal Study of Young Women, 14, 395. See also Bias in surveys

- National Longitudinal Survey of Young Men (NLS): description of, 14, 37, 77, 79; limitations of, 384, 389; Parnes data, 352; and the Vietnam War, 352. See also Bias in surveys
- Natural rate of unemployment, 482
- Neighbor Youth Corps, 209
- Newness in the labor market, 246–47, 248
- Nonemployment: consequences of, for women, 393; female, rates, 397; and human capital, 350, 410; impact of early, on future wages, 280, 411, 414; impact of marriage and family decisions, 394, 425; among nonwhite nonstudents, 286; nonwhite, rates, 26; persistence of, 355, 359, 399–400, 401–2; as signal, 378, 379; among students, 497; among white nonstudents, 497
- Nonemployment, duration of, 219; black, 216; black female, 410; to duration of unemployment, 211; female, 213, 410; male, 213; nonstudent, 216
- Nonmarket activity, 188
- Nonparticipants. See Out-of-the-labor-force
- Nonprice rationing mechanism, family as, 454
- Nonstationarity, 366–67, 373, 420
- Nonwhite youths. See Black youths
- Occupation: incidence of, 436; indices, 428; by industry retention rates, 430, 432, 446; quit rates, 438; wage and job loss rates, 438; wage and unemployment rate, 436; by wage growth, 430–31, 446
- Occupational characteristics: and quit rates, 438; and unemployment rates, 15, 427, 437
- On-the-job-training, 252, 254, 314–15, 368, 424
- Out-of-the-labor-force: definition of, 32 n. 11; discouraged workers, 23, 47, 49; discrimination, 393; duration of, spells, 207; job aspirations, 24, 46–47; rates, 6, 23, 396; transition rate of, 202, 204; and unemployment, 204, 232–33, 353
- employment and, 149; female, 41, 193–94, 396, 454; job separation rates and, 481–82; merits of, 36; military service and, 152; minimum wage and, 132, 533, 534; trend of, 41, 152, 176; and supply, 481; white, 84, 353
- Part-time work, 56, 254, 316
- Passive job search, 204, 233
- Permanent scar, 374
- Persistence of labor force experience. See State dependence
- Personal contacts in finding jobs: family income, 454, 504–5; parents', 466–67; racial differences in, 467; relatives and, 467; sibling employment and, 463, 464. See also Work ethic, family
- Poverty tract residence, impact of: on employment, 6, 140, 150, 153, 461; on human capital formation, 122–123; on job quit/loss rates, 438; on unemployment rates, 436; on wage rates, 140
- Probit specification, 294
- Productivity, 194–95
- Public policy, 229, 269–70, 342–43, 384, 424, 425
- Public Use File, 100, 429
- Racial differences: entrant unemployment, 49; female employment ratios, 44; female entrant unemployment, 218; female wage rates, 176; full time work, 282; inner city unemployment, 27; job loss rates, 49; job layoff/quit rates, 217; male wage rate, 59; military service, 284; participation rates, 46; personal contacts, 467; post-high school employment, 46, 290, 307, 309; post-high school enrollment, 282, 286, 299; post-high school wage rates, 290, 299, 307–8, 314; unemployment of high school dropouts, 26; unemployment rates, 7, 13, 29, 262–63, 265; wage rates, 176, 280–81, 316, 343
- Recession of 1975, cost of, 226, 228
- Regional unemployment, 436
- Relatives and personal contacts, 467
- Relative wage, 174
- Reputation and implicit work contract, 490, 493
- Reservation wage, 157–58
- Satisfactory group, 19
- School attendance, post-high school: expected wage rate and, 301; high school

- School attendance (cont.)
 work and, 301; parents' education and, 300; parents' income and, 299–300; racial differences in, 282, 286, 299; rural high school and, 301; test scores/class rank and, 300
- Schooling and unemployment, 254, 436, 459
- School status, 122, 149–50; black, 13, 65, 137, 178–79, 194; demand and, 125, 127; and employment, 140; male, 20, 167; and military service, 175; and participation rates, 125; U2 measure of unemployment, 166–67; and wage rates, 140, 317; white, 167, 178
- Search theory. See Job search
- Seasonal employment, 9, 22, 207, 208, 209, 428
- Separate markets, 56
- Serial correlation, 236, 317, 320, 324, 366–67, 403
- Signaling theory: policy implications of, 384, 424; state dependence and, 364, 403; type workers in, 351, 379; work experience and, 351, 410
- Skill depreciation, 394, 410
- Social minimum wage, 186–87
- Social problems: crime, 60, 63–68; illegitimate births, 61–62; suicides, 62; violence in schools, 60. See also Crime
- Specific information, 274
- State dependence: bias in, 373, 420; definition of, 317; and duration dependence, 406, 409; and duration of unemployment, 362–63; and experience dependence, 364; and family size, 405, 420; heterogeneity and, 320, 360, 373; and human capital, 364, 403; and persistence of unemployment, 368–69; and persistence of weeks worked, 326; serial correlation and, 320, 326, 366; and signaling, 364, 403; and unemployment, 361–62; for women, 403. See also Human capital; Signaling theory
- Supply, labor: age and importance of, 132, 134; and cohort overcrowding, 117; minimum wage and, 157–58, 481–82; participation rates and, 481–82; separation rates and 480–82; unemployment rates and 480–81; wage response to, 117
- Survey of Income and Education, 134, 136, 455
- Target earners, 446
- Temporary employment firms, 491
- Tenure. See Job tenure
- Tenure dependence. See Job tenure
- Test for causality, 380
- Test for exogeneity, 377
- Test scores and class rank: on wage rates, 313; on weeks worked, 307
- Tobit specification, 291
- Tracking, 350, 375
- Transfer payments, 459
- Truncated variables, 291, 295, 325, 367–68, 469
- Uncompensated screening, 493
- U1 measure of unemployment, 165–66
- U2 measure of unemployment, 166–67
- U3 measure of unemployment, 167–68, 188
- Unions, 256, 439, 496, 519–20
- Veterans, 436
- Vietnam war, 269
- Violence in schools, 60
- Vocational education, 307, 313–14, 346
- Voluntary unemployment, 425
- Wage rate. See Youth wage rate
- Withdrawal rate, 202, 208, 224
- White-collar workers, 437
- Worker utility function, 486–87
- Work ethic, 306, 454, 464
- Work experience; high school, future employment, 12, 278–79, 304; high school, school attendance, 301; high school, and skills gained, 305–6; as signal of worker quality, 410; and unemployment, 252, 436; and wage rate, 14, 310–11, 315, 316, 378, 380, 382, 411; and the work ethic, 306
- Youth Incentive Entitlement Pilot Projects, 470
- Youth unemployment: age breakdown, 25–26; black, rates, 2, 4–5, 26, 28, 176, 193, 239, 436; cohort overcrowding, 3, 164, 172, 177–78; concentration of, 2, 6, 22, 24–26, 354; discouraged workers, 149; dual labor market, 350; duration of, 18, 20, 22, 207, 210, 239; duration of black, 44, 239; duration dependence, 388; human capital, 228; industry mix, 121–22,

- 497; inner city residence, 342; job changing, 6–7, 242–43, 476; job finding rate, 478; job tenure, 246, 263; job training, 263; labor turnover, 199–200, 236, 242, 256, 274–75, 484; marital status, 254, 263, 268, 436; Markov process, 359, 363, 387; merits of the, rate, 36; military service, 165–66, 175, 269, 436; minimum wage, 3, 10, 156, 174, 192, 481, 495, 534; newness in labor market, 246–47, 248; nonemployment, 211; out-of-the-labor-force, 232–33, 353; participation rates, 481; part-time work, 254; poverty residence, 436; racial differences, 7, 13, 26, 27, 262–63, 265; rate, 2, 4–5, 19, 20, 26, 28, 353, 436; regional, 436; school status, 65; schooling, 254, 436; serial correlation, 236; signaling, 351; state dependence, 361–63, 368–69; transition rate, 476; trend of, 37, 41; unions, 256; voluntary, 425; welfare, 122; work experience and, 252, 436. See also Employment; Nonemployment; Out-of-the-labor-force; Participation rates, labor force
- Youth wage rate: black, 2, 140, 176, 411, 414; college attendance and, 315; decline of, relative to older workers, 56–57; on employment, 373, 470; heterogeneity, 311, 378, 381; human capital and, 368; industrial mix and, 173; initial and future, 14–15, 279, 323; measured, and potential wage, 373; nonemployment and future, 280, 411, 414; on-the-job-training and, 314–15; part-time work and, 316; poverty tract residence and, 140; racial differences in, 59, 176, 280–81, 290, 299, 307–8, 314, 316, 343; reservation wage, 157–58; school status and, 140, 301, 317; test scores and, 313; tracking and, 375; vocational education, 307, 313–14; unions and, 496, 519–20; wage response to disequilibrium, 117; work experience and, 14, 310–11, 315, 316, 378, 380, 382, 411. See also Minimum wage