

BOSTON AREA SUMMER CAMPS

Explore It! Summer Camp with Boston Children's Museum

Explore It Summer Camp will provide full-day, in-person, week-long summer camp experiences for curious learners entering grades K-2. Campers will enjoy Museum exhibits, play in the adjacent Martin's Park, and engage in fun games, activities, and hands-on STEAM activities. The Camp is designed to highlight all the best parts of hands-on learning and exploration for which Boston Children's Museum is known. Each day will include STEAM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Art, Math) activities, outdoor play, games, and collaborative projects. Experiences such as cycling through a human car wash, making mud sculptures, investigating the creatures that live in the channel in front of the Museum, and soldering your own keychain are all possible at Explore It Summer Camp.

ImprovBoston Summer Camps & Programs

Through improv, kids learn every day tools for life: risk-taking, quick thinking, support, trust, confidence, teamwork, and acceptance. ImprovBoston teaches improv in its one-week ComedyClinics (Monday-Friday, 10am-3pm) for kids ages 8-17 during February vacation, April vacation, and summer vacation. ImprovBoston alumni are featured on The Daily Show, America's Got Talent, Funniest Wins, Real Time with Bill Maher, Last Comic Standing, and John Oliver's Last Week Tonight, to name a few. As a nonprofit arts organization, ImprovBoston serves the community through laughter with youth outreach programs, workshops for businesses, scholarships, a national touring company and, of course, performances at its theater complex in Central Square, Cambridge.
