
Subject Index

- Acquisitions. See Mergers
- Affirmative action policies, 85–87
- American Depository Receipts (ADRs), 15, 21
- AMH* merger (Australia), 40, 42–43
- Ansett Avis* merger (Australia), 40–41
- Antitrust merger policies, 35; necessary criteria for enhancing value, 38; speed and confidentiality for, 68–69. See also Australia; Mergers
- Arnotts* merger (Australia), 40, 44
- AT&T, 344–45
- Australia: AMH merger, 40, 42–43; Ansett Avis merger, 40–41; antitrust policy and, 37; applications for authorization of mergers in, 55–56; Arnotts merger, 40, 44; authorization in, 53–55; decision-making framework for interstate network in, 296–98; decision-making framework for main coal lines in, 294–96; decision-making framework for rail networks in, 289–91; decision-making framework for regional networks in, 293–94; decision-making framework for urban rail passenger networks in, 291–93; future railway reforms in, 286; implications for existing railway arrangements in, 298–99; informal clearance outcomes in, 61–62; informal notification and clearance process in, 56–61; lessons from antitrust merger policies of, 64–65; lessons from merger experience of, 64; merger policy in, 3; Outboard Marine v. Hecar merger, 40–46; overview of railways in, 279–80; performance of railways in, 285; QIW v. Davids merger, 40, 45; railroad industry in, 7; railway reforms in, 282–85; reason or lack of merger litigation in, 50–53; Section 87B undertakings in, 62–63; shortcomings of informal notification and clearance process, 63–64; stealth regulation in, 68; wording of Section 50, 39–50
- Authorization, in Australia, 53–55
- Bailout guarantees: for banks, 9; for borrowers vs. lenders, 449–50; and crisis models, 436; as growth-enhancing vehicle, 425; piecemeal vs. all-at-once, 450–51; preconditions for systematic, 427; as second-best instrument to promote investment, 426; systematic, 427
- Bank bailouts: direct costs of, 377–78; policy choices for, 378–79
- Bank distress: cumulative effects of, on illiquid asset markets, 390–91; recent Japanese, vs. U.S. Great Depression, 408–10; role of market discipline in limiting, 383–90; in U.S., during Great Depression, 379–83. See also Mexico, banking crisis in

- Bank dividends, 404–7
- Bankruptcy procedures, in Korea, 142–43
- Banks/banking systems: arguments for rescuing, 375–78; Japanese collapse of, 408–10; policies for distressed, 8–9; role of bailout guarantees for, 9
- Boards of directors, in Korea, 145–46
- British Telecom, 349; rate rebalancing by, 351
- Broadcasting: CATV, 362; satellite, 362; terrestrial, 362
- “Burning the bridge” tactic, 263
- Cable television (CATV), Japanese, 345, 362; deregulation of, 363–66
- “Capital crunch” phenomenon, 386–87
- Casting industry, privatization and growth of, in China, 242–45
- Chaebol*, 95, 97; bank loans to, 135–36; cross-debt guarantees of, 135
- China: corporate governance in, 189–90; determinants of privatization of state economic enterprises in, 6; equity structure of companies in, 187–88; establishment of stock market in, 185–86; gaizhi policy in, 254; government reform in Shunde, 267–73; Greater Yangtze River Region in, 233; growth of capital stock in, 260–62; impact of IPOs on listed companies in, 197–203; lease contracts in, 252–53; model of government commitment and privation for, 261–67; operational performance of companies listed on Shanghai Stock Market, 190–97; privatization and growth of casting industry in, 242–45; privatization and growth of garment industry in, 237–42; privatization efforts in, 251–55; privatization in, 13, 231–32; reform of SOEs in, 252; regional differences in firm performance in, 255–61; Southeast Jiangsu in, 234–35; studies on performance of IPOs in, 186; Zhuada fangxiao policy of, 253–54. See also Town and village enterprises (TVEs); Township- and village-run enterprises (TVREs)
- Coasian theory of institutions, 212
- Commercial codes, 17. See also Law(s)
- Competition: and privatization of Japan National Railway, 324–26; as redistribution tool, 85–87
- Contracts, 30; implementing corporate governance and, 14; lease, 252–53
- Corporate debt. See Debt
- Corporate governance. See Governance, corporate
- Corruption, 262
- Crisis models, third-generation, 435–37
- Czech Republic: commercial code in, 17; corporate governance in, 13–14; lack of stringent regulations in, 22; protection of small shareholders in, 20
- Daini Denden, 353
- Debt: corporate, in Korea, 130–36; corporate governance and, 24–25; cross-guarantees of, and chaebol, 135; risky “dollar,” 443–44; theft and, 23–24
- Denden Kosha. See Nippon Telephone and Telegraph (NTT)
- Deposit insurance, 393–94
- Deregulation: of electricity, 76–77, 82–84; of Japanese cable television, 363–66. See also Regulation
- Dinkins, David N., 86
- Eastern Europe, collapse of, and privatization, 1
- Economic outcomes, investor protection and, 18–19
- Economic policy problems, use of markets for solving, 4
- Electricity, deregulation of, 76–77, 82–84
- Emerging economies, 440–41
- Emerging markets, 425–26
- Emissions-allowance market, 80, 82–83
- Endogenous risk, 437–39
- Enron, 77
- Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), emissions-allowance market and, 80, 82–83
- Evergreening, 450–51
- Exchange rate regimes: bailout guarantees and, 449; fixed, 427–28
- FDICIA law (1991), 448
- Federal Communications Commission (FCC), spectrum auctions and, 87
- Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC), 394
- Financial information, in Korea, 146–47
- Financial institutions, Korean, monitoring of loans by, 144–45

- Fisheries, regulation of, 78–79; role of government and, 84–85
- Fixed exchange rate regimes, 427–28; bailout guarantees and, 449
- Foreign banks, 448
- France: performance changes of railways in, 327–30; rail restructuring in, 313–16
- Gaizhi* policy, 254
- Garment industry, privatization and growth of, in China, 237–42
- Germany, 20
- Giuliani, Rudolph W., 86
- Gongdan*, 96, 96n2
- Governance, corporate, 2; in China, 189–90; comments on, 30–32; contracts for implementing, 14; in Czech Republic, 13–14; debt and, 24–25; implementing, 14; IPOs and, 5–6; in Korea, 4–5; of Korean public enterprises prior to November 1997, 102–3; of Korean state-owned enterprises, 102–3; performance and, 3; of private firms, 2; privatized firms with weak, 13–14; reform, 262–63; reforms, in Korea, 147–50
- Government-owned corporations (GOCs). See Korea; State-owned enterprises (SOEs)
- Great Britain. See United Kingdom
- Great Depression: bank dividends during, 404–7; gold standard and, 391–93; liquidation of nonperforming loans during, 390–91; policy responses to bank distress during, 391–94; role of market discipline in limiting bank distress during, 383–90; U.S. bank distress during, 379–83
- Han Xin, 263
- Incorporation, 253
- India, lending booms in, 445
- Industrial development: Sunan Model of, 231, 234–35; Wenzhou Model of, 238
- Informal clearance: outcomes of, 61–62; process of, 56–61
- Initial public offerings (IPOs): corporate governance and, 5–6; impact of, on companies listed on Shanghai Stock Exchange, 197–203; studies on performance of, for China, 186
- Institutions, investor protection and, 19–20
- Internet, 346
- Investor protection: economic outcomes and, 18–19; institutions and, 19–20; laws and, 16–18; legal reforms and, 21–22
- Japan: banking collapse in, 408–10; CATV industry in, 363–66; coincidence of disputes in telecommunications industry in, 367–68; competition in long-distance telephone markets in, 353–57; development of local telephone competition in, 360; new common carriers (NCCs), 352; performance changes of railways in, 327–30; policies for distress banks in, 8–9; rail restructuring in, 313–16; railroad industry in, 8; rate rebalancing and access charges in, 351–52; regulatory discipline for market discipline in, 410–14; satellite broadcasting in, 362, 363; television industry in, 362; terrestrial broadcasting services in, 362–63. See also Nippon Telephone and Telegraph (NTT); Telecommunications industry
- Japan National Railway (JNR): debt transfer of, 312–13; Japanese approach to restructuring, 308–11; privatization process for, 307; rail fare at, 322; reasons for privatization of, 306; regulation changes for, 311–12; restructuring options for, 307–8; Shinkansen Holding Company and, 313. See also Railways
- Japan National Railway Settlement Corporation (JNRSC), 312–13
- Japan Railways (JR): competition at, 324–26; incentive systems at, 318; lessons learned from privatization of, 330–34; local services and, 326–27; management goals of, 316; organizational structure of, 317–18; performance of, after privatization, 319–22; rail fare at, 322–24; relationships with interest groups and, 316–17; task-improvement activities at, 318–19. See also Railways
- Japan Telecom (JT), 353, 357
- Kennedy, John F., 85
- Kokusai Denshin Denwa Co., Ltd. (KDD), 357

- Korea: aggregate data for sources of corporate financing, before and after economic crisis, 160–62; bankruptcies in, 142–43; causes of low firm performance in, 141–47; chaebol system in, 95; corporate debt in, 130–36; corporate firm performance in, 136–41; corporate governance in, 4–5; currency-flight view of 1997 economic collapse, 129–30; debt-equity ratio of firms in, 130–36; determinants of changes in loan allocations in, 172–75; effects of corporate governance reforms in, 149–50; financial information in, 146–47; financial-institution monitoring in, 144–45; financing patterns of firms in, 166–72; firm-level data for, 162–66; governance of public enterprises prior to November 1997, 102–3; government involvement in commercial activities and financial markets, 122–23; government ownership of industries, 118–21; government regulations for mergers and acquisitions, 142–43; government's involvement in industries, 95–96; institutional environment of public-enterprise sector prior to 1998, 98–99; legal forms of public enterprises in, 96; lending booms in, 445; main businesses and market position of public enterprises prior to 1998, 100–101; negligent boards of directors in, 145–46; 1997 Special Act on Privatization, 108–12; overview of corporate financing in, 159–60; privatization in, 13; privatization plan of 1998, 112–14, 115; problems of public enterprises in, 96–97; PSE policies of, 4; recent corporate governance reforms in, 147–49; recent developments in telecom industry, 117–18; recent developments in tobacco industry, 116–17; reform efforts to privatize public-enterprise sector in, 97; rights of minority shareholders in, 145; sizes and financial performance of public enterprises in, 103–8; special governmental acts in privatization in, 114–16; total borrowing of firms in, 175–76; use of bond market for financing by large firms in, 177–78
- Law(s): importance of, for investor protection, 16–18; for investor protection, 16; judiciary and, 22–23; rule of, 251–52
- Lease contracts, 252–53
- Legal reform, investor protection and, 21–22
- Legal rules, 15. See also Law(s)
- Lending booms, 444–45
- Malaysia, privatization in, 13
- Market discipline: and regulatory discipline, in Japan, 410–14; role of, in limiting bank distress, 383–90
- Markets: for allocating public resources, 73–74; designing, 82–83; electricity deregulation and, 76–77; fisheries and, 78–79; lessons on, as policy tools, 79–85; pollution control and, 77–78; regulation and, 83–85; revealing information and, 80–82; for solving economic policy problems, 4; spectrum licenses and, 74–76
- Mergers, 36–37; applications for authorization of, 55–56; authorization of, 53–55; efficiency vs. monopoly and, 37; regulations for, in Korea, 143–44; safe harbor and, 69; secrecy and, 37–38; timeliness and, 37–38. See also Antitrust merger policies; Australia
- Metal-casting industry, privatization and growth of, in China, 242–45
- Mexico, banking crisis in, 428–34. See also Bank distress
- Ministry of Posts and Telecommunications (MPT): deregulation of CATV industry and, 363–66; introduction of interconnection charges by, 359–60; NTT and, 347, 348–50; television industry and, 362. See also Japan; Telecommunications industry
- Mobile phones, 360–61
- Netherlands, the, railway reforms in, 280
- New common carriers (NCCs), 352; competition in local telephone markets in, 357–60; long-distance telephone markets and, 353–57
- New Zealand: merger litigation in, 49–50; regulation of fisheries in, 79; role of government and regulation in, 84–85
- Nippon Telephone and Telegraph (NTT), 343; creation of, as public monopoly, 347; dispute over divestiture of, 350–51; government policies punishing, 352–53; interconnection rates in, 360; privatization of, 347–48; rate rebalancing and access charges by, 351–52; re-

- shaping of, in 1999, 346. See also
Japan; Telecommunications industry
- Office of Telecommunications (OFTEL), 348–49
- Outboard Marine v. Hecar* merger (Australia), 40–46
- Outcomes, regional differences of, in China, 255–61
- Performance, corporate governance and, 3
- Poland: commercial code in, 17; investor protection and, 16; stringent regulations in, 22
- Pollution control, 77–78
- Private firms, governance of, 2
- Privatization: of casting industry in China, 242–45; in China, 13, 231–32, 251–55;
collapse of Soviet Union and Eastern Europe and, 1; data set for studying,
217–18; effect of, on TVEs and SOEs,
7; empirical tests of, 218–19; of garment industry in China, 237–42; of Japan National Railway (JNR), 306–7;
in Korea, 13, 112–21; lessons learned from, 2–3; in Malaysia, 13; measuring variables of, 219–21; model of, 214–16; original motives for, 1; questions over methods of, 1–2; reasons government seek, 211–12; results of empirical tests of, 222–29; theories of, 212–13. See also State-owned enterprises (SOEs)
- Proportional voting rights premium
(PVRP), 150
- Propping, 23–25
- Prudential regulation, 447–48
- Public-sector enterprises (PSEs), declining roles of, 1
- QIW v. Davids* merger (Australia), 40, 45
- Railways: in Australia, 7, 279–80; international comparison of restructuring for,
313–16; in Japan, 8; overview of structure and ownership of, 281*t*; reforms, in the Netherlands, 280; reforms, in United Kingdom, 280; in United Kingdom, 8. See also Australia; Japan National Railway (JNR); Japan Railways
(JR)
- Reconstruction Finance Corporation
(RFC), 379, 394; preferred-stock purchase program of, 394–99; preferred stock purchases vs. loans by, 399–400;
reasons for success of preferred-stock purchase program of, 400–404
- Redistribution, competition as tool for, 85–
87
- Regional Bell operating companies
(RBOCs), 346–47
- Regulation: in Australia, 68; efficient framework for, and bailout guarantees, 427;
of fisheries in New Zealand, 78–79; of
Japan National Railway (JNR), 311–
12; lack of, in Czech Republic, 22; markets and, 83–85; of mergers and acquisitions, in Korea, 142–43; in Poland,
22; prudential, 447–48; stealth, 67–68.
See also Deregulation
- Regulatory discretion, 68
- Regulatory performance, 68
- Risky “dollar” debt, 443–44
- Risky environments, 427
- Safe harbor, 69
- Satellite broadcasting, 362, 363
- Section 50 (Australia), wording of, 39–50
- Self-fulfilling crisis, 439–40
- Shanghai Stock Exchange, 185, 191, 253
- Shareholders, rights of minority, in Korea, 145
- Shenzhen Stock Exchange, 191, 253
- Shinkasen Holding Company, 313
- South Korea. See Korea
- Soviet Union, collapse of, and privatization, 1
- Spectrum auctions, 80–81; affirmative action policies and, 87; role of government and, 84
- Spectrum licenses, auctions for, 74–76
- State-owned enterprises (SOEs): dependence of TVREs on, 232; governance of,
in Korea, 102–3; reasons for governments to privatize, 211–12; reasons for privatizing, 6; reform of, 7, 252; theories why governments dump, 212–13;
vs. town and village enterprises, 6–7.
See also Privatization
- Stealth regulation, 67–68
- Stock market development, growth and, 18
- Sunan Model of Industrial Development,
231, 234–35
- Sweden: performance changes of railways in, 327–30; railway restructuring in,
313–16
- Switzerland, 20

- Systematic bailout guarantees, 436–37; exchange rate regimes and, 449; implementing, 442–43, 449; role of risky “dollar” debt and, 443–44
- Takeovers, 36. See also Mergers
- Telecommunications industry, in Japan, 343–44; coincidence of disputes over, 366–68; development of local competition in Japan, 360; future reforms in, 368–70; Japan’s restructuring of, 357–58; from middle of 1990s to present, 346–47; mobile phones and, 360–61; structural changes in, from middle of 1980s to middle of 1990s, 345–46; structural changes in, up to early 1980s, 344–45. See also Nippon Telephone and Telegraph (NTT)
- Television industry. See Broadcasting
- Teleway Japan, 353, 357
- Terrestrial broadcasting, 362–63
- Third-generation crisis models, 435–37
- Town and village enterprises (TVEs), 231, 254–55; vs. SOEs, 6–7. See also China
- Township- and village-run enterprises (TVREs), 231; data used for, 233–37; dependence on SOEs by, 232; privatization and growth of, in casting industry, 242–45; privatization and growth of, in garment industry, 237–42; in southeast Jiangsu, 234–37. See also China
- Tradable-quota system, 79
- Transaction costs, 237
- Tunneling, 22, 23–25
- Unconditional bailout guarantees, 436
- United Kingdom: concept of long-run incremental costs and interconnection rates in, 360; Office of Telecommunications in (OFTEL), 348–49; performance changes of railways in, 327–30; rail restructuring in, 313–16; railroad industry in, 8; railway reforms in, 260; rate rebalancing in, 351; regulatory systems of, compared to Japan, 348–49
- United States: access-charge system in, 351; coincidence of disputes in telecommunications industry in, 366–67; concept of long-run incremental costs and interconnection rates in, 360; FDICIA Law, 448; policies for distress banks in, 9; rate rebalancing in, 351; regulatory systems of, compared to Japan, 348; severity of bank distress during Great Depression, 379–83; stealth regulation in, 67–68. See also Great Depression; Reconstruction Finance Corporation (RFC)
- Urban rail passenger networks, 291–93
- Value, 36
- Wenzhou Model of Industrial Development, 238
- Winner’s curse, 81
- Wireless technology, 345
- Zhuada fangxiao* policy, 253–54