Acknowledgments

The authors are grateful to the National Bureau of Economic Research, which supported a series of interviews with prominent economists conducted by the Fogels. These interviews greatly informed this book, particularly those with John Kenneth Galbraith, Robert Nathan, and Paul Samuelson.

We thank also the Kuznets Archive at Harvard University for its assistance with research. It would not have been possible to complete the book without helpful comments and assistance from Joseph Burton, Louis P. Cain, Paul A. David, Richard Easterlin, Claudia Goldin, Dale Jorgenson, Dwight Perkins, and Henry Rosovsky. Our thanks are also due to Paul Kuznets and Judy Stein. David Pervin at the University of Chicago Press has been a keen editor, and his input has improved the final product greatly.
