Prefatory Note

This volume contains revised versions of most of the papers and discussion presented at the Conference on Research in Income and Wealth entitled “Medical Care Output and Productivity,” held in Bethesda, Maryland, on 12–13 June 1998. It also contains some material not presented at that conference.

Funds for the Conference on Research in Income and Wealth are supplied by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, the Bureau of Economic Analysis, the Federal Reserve Board, and the Bureau of the Census; we are indebted to them for their support.

We thank David M. Cutler and Ernst R. Berndt, who served as conference organizers and editors of the volume, and the NBER staff and University of Chicago Press editors for their assistance in organizing the conference and editing the volume.

Volume Editors' Acknowledgments

Many individuals assisted in putting together this volume. Substantial funding for the volume, as well as for many of the research projects, was provided to the National Bureau of Economic Research by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, the Bureau of Economic Analysis, the National Institute on Aging, the National Science Foundation, and Eli Lilly and Company. We are grateful to each for their support. We are also grateful to the authors and discussants who so ably brought forward the intricacies of this issue.

The NBER Conference Department, under the able direction of Kirsten Foss Davis, superbly organized the conference at which these research papers were presented. We are also grateful to Helena Fitz-Patrick, who provided extensive support in coordinating the publication of this volume.
