
Subject Index

- Baker Plan, 235, 266, 284–85
Bank for International Settlements (BIS), 2, 11, 240
Bank lending, 1982 collapse of, 244–47
Bonds, 99
Bonn Summit (1978), 11, 31, 40n.19, 52, 56–59, 60n.12
Borrowing, 5, 237
Bretton Woods System, 12, 14, 26–29, 37, 53, 136, 147; capital controls and, 111–12; conference of 1944 and, 79, 136; exchange rate crises and, 113; policy coordination under, 35; weaknesses in, 110
Business-government cooperation, in international trade, 218–24

Canada-U.S. Free Trade Arrangement, 208, 222
Capital controls, in European Monetary System, 115–17
Capital flow, to debtor countries, 272–73
Central banks, 23–24, 119
Commercial banks, 234, 288–89
Competitiveness, of U.S. industry, 223–24
Consumer Price Index (CPI), 14, 84
Coordination theory, of macroeconomics, 2–5, 11–13, 19–23

Debt management, 252–54, 258–60; creditor country responsibility and, 268–69; failure of diplomacy and, 269–70; large debtors and, 260–62; macroeconomic oversimplifications of, 267–68; new private lending and, 266–67; U.S. money-center banks and, 262–66. See also International Debt; Less-Developed-Countries (LDC) Debt
Defense spending, 101–3
Discretionary coordination, 54–59

Emergency Committee for American Trade (ECAT), 221–22
Euro-dollar, 68, 97
European Monetary System (EMS), 11, 34, 114–17; 149–50
Exchange rates, 2–7, 18, 26–30; adjustable peg and, 154; adjustments to, 156–61; fixed, 79–80, 82, 106–10, 127; flexibility of, 39, 81–82; floating, 138–47; foreign exchange intervention and, 96–97; G-5 intervention and, 103–7, 139; instability in international trade and, 212; managed floating, 118–27; misalignment and, 88–96; national and global interests and, 151–56; possible reforms in, 80; real, 244–47; the Smithsonian Accord and, 125–27; sterilized intervention and, 82, 97–100, 129n.22; target zones and, 53–54, 82, 121–27; trade and, 86–88; U.S. dollar and, 62–64; volatility of, 82–88.

- Fair trade, 214
- Foreign exchange intervention, 96–97
- General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT), 11–12, 26, 47, 168, 177–89, 196–97; American business community and, 222–3; codes, 189; defined as a coordination compact, 171–73; erosion of system, 213–14; fair trade and, 214; quotas and, 155–56; surveillance and, 198n.6
- Germany, 3, 6, 18, 23, 32–34, 37; exports and imports of, 39n.4, 87; fiscal expansion of, 11, 20, 51–52, 55; international trade and, 13; political leaders in, 69–70; unemployment in, 81
- Gold standard, 24, 137–38
- Government subsidies, 8
- Gamm-Rudman-Hollings Act, 212
- Great Depression, 25, 236
- Gross National Product (GNP), 15–18, 158–59, 243, 253
- Group of 7 (G-7), 2, 34, 139
- Imports: oil, 6; U.S. quota on, 7
- Inflation, 5; domestic, 15
- Information exchange, between countries, 35–36
- Inter-American Development Bank (IDB), 310–11
- Interbank deposits, 64–65
- Interest rates: gold and, 24; less-developed-countries (LDC) crisis and, 240–42
- International capital markets, 274–75
- International debt, 309–15
- International loans. See Less-developed-countries (LDC) Debt
- International Monetary Fund (IMF), 2, 8–9, 12, 26–30, 47, 139, 172–73, 175; agreement with Mexico and, 247–52, 274; and debtor countries, 254–57; General Agreement to Borrow (GAB), 308; surveillance and, 34
- International monetary systems: costs of changing, 147–51
- International negotiation, 3, 61
- International trade, 7–8; exchanges rates and, 14–18; France and, 13; Germany and, 13; interdependence of, 13–18; Japan and, 13; United Kingdom and, 13
- International Trade Organization (ITO), 172, 175
- International trade policy: adjustment problems in, 194–97; administered intervention and, 185–87; agriculture and, 217; business-government cooperation in, 218–24; changing environments in, 178–80; common objectives in, 172–73; competitive analysis in, 197n.4; coordination compacts and, 171–72; current issues in U.S., 204–11; debt of developing countries and, 213; imbalances in, 212; industrial overproduction and, 215–16; multilateralism in, 187–89; motives and, 178; multinational firms mobility and, 190–94; national strengths and, 180–85; post-World War II environment and, 167–71; prisoner's dilemma model and, 170–71; reciprocity in, 217–18; rules and discretion in, 176–78; strategic policy coordination in, 196–97; scope of, 174; virtue and, 175–76; voluntary export restraints (VERs) in, 186–87, 215
- Japan, 1, 3, 5–6, 7, 18, 23, 32–34, 37; capital formation in, 72; economic influence of, 180; employment in, 195; fiscal expansion of, 55; fiscal policy of, 51; international trade and, 13; political leaders in, 69–70; economic position of, 141, 144; U.S. trade imbalance with, 212; and voluntary export restraints (VERs), 215
- Japanese Economic Planning Agency (EPA), 23
- Latin American debt, 242–244, 291–304
- Less-developed-countries (LDC) debt, 8, 47, 58, 145, 154; Baker Plan and, 235, 266, 284–85; bank lending collapse and, 244–47; commercial banks and, 234, 288–89; conditionality of loans and, 257–58, 286; debt-for-equity swaps and, 287; debtor country uniqueness and, 285–

- 86; growth in trade and income and, 286; increase of net capital flow and, 272–73; interest rates and, 240–42; international capital market and, 274–75; international lending and, 254–7; Latin American countries and, 242–44, 290–303; management strategies and, 233, 252–54; Mexico and, 244–52, 274; OPEC oil shock and, 236–37; partial relief of, 271–72; public/private borrowing and, 237; scope and origins of, 236. See also Debt Management; International Debt
- McKinnon monetary rule, 37
- Macroeconomic policy: Bretton Woods system and, 35, 37; coordination theory of, 2–5, 11–13, 19–23; discretionary coordination and, 54–59; discretionary policy deals and, 36; government and, 50–51; historical background of, 23–34; international economic coordination and, 61–65; political realities of, 51–53; surveillance and information exchange in, 35–36; target zone proposal in, 37; three-currency bloc world and, 37–38
- Managed floating: alternatives to, 118; the reference rate proposal and, 119; Tobin's exchange market tax and, 120–21
- Mexico: bailout of 1982, 247–48; less-developed-countries (LDC) debt crisis and, 244–46, 274
- Minilateralism, in trade policy, 187–89
- Multicountry model (MCM), 23
- Multilateral development banks (MDBs), 249, 252
- Multinational firm mobility, 190–94
- National strengths, and trade, 180–85
- Negotiations, and less-developed-countries (LDC) debt 287–88
- Noncooperative equilibrium, 19
- North Sea oil, 124–25
- Oil imports, 6
- Oil prices, and OPEC countries, 31–32, 125, 236
- Operation Twist, 27
- Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD), 2, 11, 27, 54, 64, 125–27
- Overproduction, in industry, 215–16
- Philippine Investment Notes (PINs), 313
- Population increase, 69, 147
- Pound sterling: misalignment of, 91–92; weaknesses of Bretton Woods system and, 113–14
- Prisoner's dilemma model, 170–71
- Private lending, and less-developed-countries (LDC) debt, 266–67
- Protectionist pressures, 58
- Real interest rates: equalization tax, 131n.48; rise in, 5
- Reference rate proposal, 119
- Risk premium, 98–99
- Smithsonian accord, 125–27
- Sterilized intervention, 97–100, 129n.22
- Target zones: anatomy of, 122–24; defining, 124–25; for exchange rates, 82, 106, 121–22, 158; proposal, 37; Smithsonian accord and, 125–27
- Tariff competition, 186
- Three-currency bloc system, 37–38
- Tobin's exchange market tax, 120–21
- Unisys Corporation, 43–45
- U.S. dollar: misalignment of, 92–96; status of, 5–7, 26–28, 218; strong appreciation of, 141
- U.S.: economic and political strengths of, 65–66; employment in, 195; exports, 3, 94; fiscal expansion of, 14–18; industry competitiveness, 223–24; Japanese trade imbalance and, 212; monetary policies in, 3–4, 15–18; money-center banks and less-developed-countries (LDC) debt, 262–66, 314–15; unemployment and, 95–96
- U.S. Trade Agreements Program, 197n.2
- U.S. trade policy, 206–10, 221–22
- Voluntary export restraints (VERs), 186–87, 215
- Wage setting, 22
- Wholesale Price Index (WPI), 84–85
- World Bank, 249, 252