

Kristen Roby Dimlow is the Senior Director of College and MBA Staffing for Microsoft overseeing the team that hires 1000 full time and 800 interns into the company annually. She also manages Microsoft's intern and scholarship programs. Prior to taking on this role in June 2002, Kristen held a number of Microsoft finance positions including Home and Entertainment Controller during the Xbox launch, Windows Controller during the Windows 2000 launch and the Desktop Applications Controller during the Office 97 launch. Prior to joining Microsoft in January 1997, Kristen worked for nine years at the Walt Disney Studios. She was most recently VP of Finance for the Disney TeleVentures group and previously held a number of finance positions within the Buena Vista Home Entertainment division, including a two-year assignment as Benelux controller in the Netherlands. Kristen's first role out of school was with General Electric where she completed the Financial Management Program. Kristen holds a BBA from the College of William and Mary. She and her husband, Jim, and two young sons enjoy skiing, golfing, hiking and ice hockey.